ABOUT US

Indalo Projects is a leading construction company in South Africa, specializing in commercial and residential projects with a focus on quality craftsmanship and design.

Established for excellence, Indalo Projects was founded by a passionate team of industry experts with a vision to offer premium construction services in the country.

Indalo Projects has proudly served a diverse range of clients, including businesses, homeowners, and developers, delivering tailored solutions to meet their unique needs and preferences.

Recognized for its dedication to quality and innovation, Indalo Projects has received numerous accolades in the construction sector, solidifying its reputation as a trusted industry leader.

Sthembiso Ngcongwane, a visionary entrepreneur, is the driving force behind Indalo Projects. With a wealth of experience in the construction industry, he leads the company towards excellence.

Sthembiso's journey began with a desire to redefine construction standards, leading him to establish Indalo Projects and build a legacy of superior craftsmanship.
